

June 4, 2010 Platform Cleanup Day

The platform cleanup day went very well. Two of us were able to clean and cut back poison ivy and other vines on the double platforms at Mill Creek. We also cleaned off the platforms with brooms and collected some trash. These platforms are in great shape.

We also retrieved a number of surveys from the platforms that we will pass on to the Albemarle Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) Council.

Before:

After:

